PROCEDURES AND INSTRUCTIONS

VIGIL MASS:

There will be a solemn procession from the Family Center to the church to initiate the Palm Sunday Vigil Mass. Lectors assigned to this service should go there to take part. Please read your Missalette starting on page 117. You will have no role to fulfill until the time of the Mass. Be in the Family Center no later than 5:15 p.m.

ALL MASSES

Readers and those participating in the reading of The Passion will process in as on Sunday.

The First and Second Readers will go to the Sanctuary, while those involved in reading The Passion will go to the right and sit in either the first or second pew opposite the Ambo.

After the readings, during the singing of the Gospel acclimation, the two Readers will leave the sanctuary and take their places in the congregation. At the same time the Narrator will proceed to the Ambo, invite the congregation to sit for the reading of the Passion and to join in the reading of the parts marked "SS" the Speaker will proceed to the microphone in front of St. Joseph's altar.

There will be special books marked for the reading of The Passion. Those books will be in the Priests' Sacristy on the counter. Look for them there. After each Mass be sure to return these books to that same place. If for any reason, you do not find the books there, check under the Ambo or the table behind it.

If you have any questions on these instructions, please do not hesitate to call me.
