Includes: Luxury motor coach, tour given by a local, lunch, wine & snacks, bus driver's tip

Few have seen the plantations and historic churches around Yemassee. We are fortunate to have a local who will show us some of these beauties, tell us some juicy stories and be our guide for the day.

Our tour will include historic churches, visiting one of the plantation homes, the grounds of another and going into the infamous Harold's Country Club.

We will have lunch at Sheldon Ruins, a breathtaking site, prepared by the Yemassee ladies. Great photo ops!

After lunch we will head to downtown Yemassee for shopping for oriental rugs, old jewelry, paintings and antiques. Great finds! So, bring tape measure and measurements. We have space under the bus to transport your newfound treasures home!

Depart St Francis parking lot at 8:00 am; Return before 6 pm. Wine and snacks on the trip home. Deadline - Oct 4. Trip requires a minimum of 30 people.

Trip details will be sent via email or snail mail 10 days before the trip.
